

Intesa Sanpaolo Center
for Transnational Litigation,
Arbitration, and Commercial Law
NYU School of Law

Teaching international commercial arbitration

INTRODUCTION

10:30–10:40 A.M.

Franco Ferrari Clarence D. Ashley Professor of Law, NYU Law

TEACHING INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION: METHODOLOGY

10:40–12:30 P.M.

Ronald A. Brand Chancellor Mark A. Nordenberg University Professor, University of Pittsburgh School of Law

Katie Gonzalez Cardozo Law School

Marco Torsello Verona University School of Law

Linda Silberman Clarence D. Ashley Professor of Law Emerita, NYU Law

TEACHING INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION: WHAT TO TEACH

Robert H. Smit Columbia Law School
Arbitration as a dispute resolution mechanism: characteristic, (dis-)advantages and relationship with other ADR methods

Andrew Larkin University of South Carolina Joseph F. Rice School of Law
The legal framework (regulatory web/concepts of arbitration)

Crina Baltag Queen Mary University of London
The arbitration agreement: applicable law(s), effects, scope (extension to third parties)

Benno Kimmelman Brooklyn Law School
Disputes about jurisdiction: who decides (Kompetenz-Kompetenz)

2:00–5:30 P.M.

Grant Hanessian Hanessian ADR
The arbitral tribunal: constitution and challenges

Daniel Schimmel Foley Hoag
Arbitration procedure: initiation, procedural principles and taking of evidence

John Fellas NYU Law
Post Award Proceedings: Setting aside and recognition and enforcement proceedings

Zachary Calo Touro Law
Specific topics: Interim Relief (including emergency arbitrator); participation of state parties

Francesca Ragno Bologna University - Alma Mater Studiorum
Non-US case law

CONCLUSION

5:30 - 5:45 P.M.

Stefan Kröll Bucerius Law School

RSVP through the link on the NYU Law Calendar. Email franco.ferrari@nyu.edu with any questions.

Monday, September 14, 2026, 10:30–5:45 p.m.

FURMAN HALL, ROOM 900, 245 SULLIVAN STREET